AFAWG Financial Aid Programs, Questions, and Peer Comparisons
January 2016

Net Price Comparisons for Selected Peers – See following tables, sorted by win percent, income groups, and % receiving Pell.

In the following charts the “Cornell University, adjusted” takes into account the fact that Cornell University has a lower tuition rate for NYState resident students in the contract colleges. Net Price calculations prepared by the National Center for Education Statistics only use one tuition level for each institution.

Net Price for Selected Peers, 2013-14 IPEDS data

Net price and Pell percentages are based on first year undergraduates. Win rates are based on Fall 2014 CBQ survey data.
